

WE ARE FILMMAKERS

HOW TO MAKE IT IN ASIA

We are FILM SERVICE (THAILAND) a production company based in Bangkok, Thailand. We work closely with cinematographers and producers to provide the most cost-effective means to produce the highest quality footages and tailor them to their needs.

For the past years, we had serves hundreds of filmmakers for shooting in Thailand, sharing out our skills and best equipment at great quality, we guide and provide support to our customers to ensure they can achieve their goals regardless of experience level.

Our mission is to work side-by-side with professional filmmakers to help them make great films. Whether it's a feature, episodic, commercial, or small doc, we understand the demands of filmmaking and the importance of succeeding.

LOCATIONS PERMITS FILMING

Our fixers / service producers will negotiate local deals and provide the appropriate level of production to match every budget.

We've worked on every kind of project. We're in this to serve our clients, not to win awards or likes in social media. So, if a client needs to film 2 people sitting in a room on a camera phone, that's what we'll do.

On the other hand, we've got a thing for big scenes. We've the resources and the experience to bring together a cast of thousands. We've shut down train stations, blocked off bridges, even built an entire building just to blow it up in the first shot.

We are speak 14 languages fluently; English, Thai, French, Spanish, Italian, Russian, Ukrainian, Pilipino, Arabic, Africans, Dhivehi, Mandarin (Chinese), Thai and Hindi. We will arrange experienced English speaking PA, runner, production driver, or other crew for your shoot in Thailand.

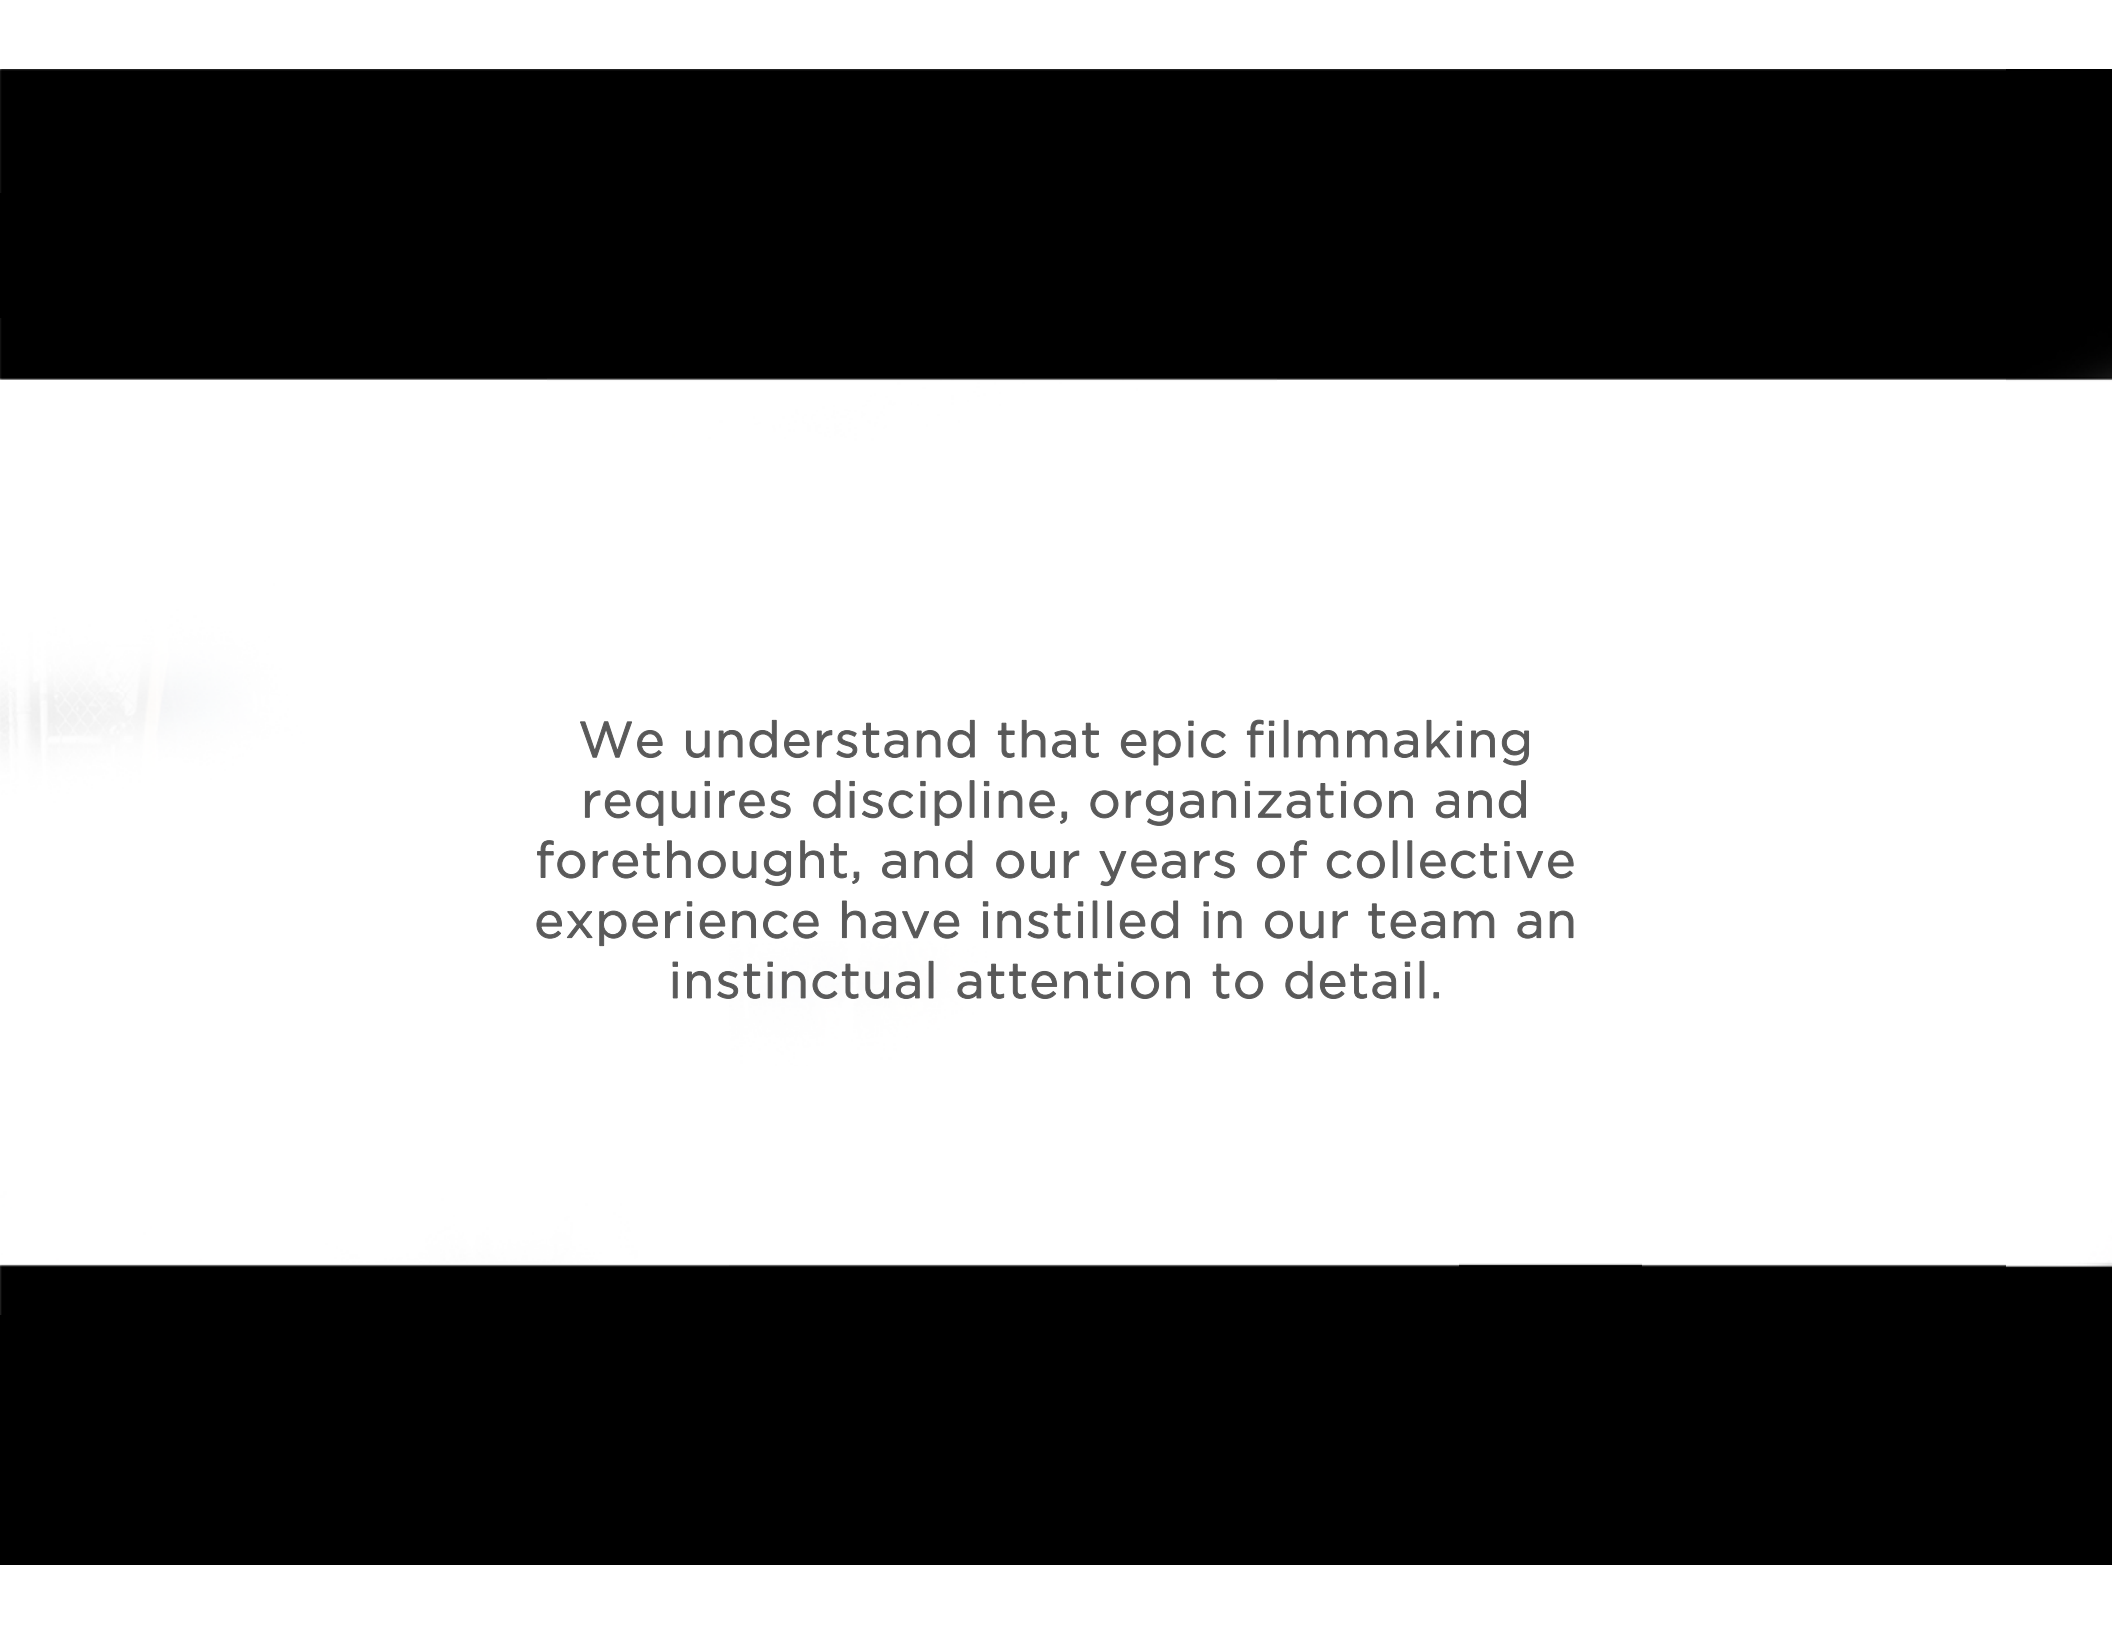

We are connected with all the best deals from equipment owners across all Thailand. We are a “one-stop” destination for all kind of shoots, carrying the most comprehensive list of stills and motion cameras including lenses & accessories, lighting and grip equipment, at affordable rates.

We understand that epic filmmaking requires discipline, organization and forethought, and our years of collective experience have instilled in our team an instinctual attention to detail.

Thanks to many years' experience there are only tasks for us that we can achieve in at the best way.

Traveling to shoot your film shouldn't mean accepting compromises or settling for less.
